PORAC Congratulates Jerry Brown - California's Next Governor

Sacramento, CA – The Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC), representing more than 62,000 public safety members throughout California, is congratulating Attorney General Jerry Brown for his election to Governor of California.

“As California’s current Attorney General, Jerry Brown knows what law enforcement needs to keep Californians safe,” said PORAC President Ron Cottingham. “Men and women in public safety need a Governor we can work with, and Jerry Brown is that person. He has been a long time supporter of public safety. We look forward to continuing to work together to keep California’s streets safe and our children out of harm’s way, because if our families aren’t safe, nothing else matters.”

*The Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC) was incorporated in 1953 as a professional federation of local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Today, PORAC represents more than 890 associations and over 62,000 public safety members, making it the largest law enforcement organization in California and the largest statewide association in the nation. PORAC’s core belief is that working together with other agencies throughout California will allow our public safety members to successfully protect the citizens of our state and ensure a safe and welcoming environment in which our future generations can thrive.
